Hi, Tom:

Yes – late yesterday afternoon, we received comments from CBF. I'll be talking with EPA about how to address the comments. It will slow down the Motion to Enter since it will not be as straightforward as it would have been.

Rob, Kate & Dennis:

Did you get any comments on the proposed Consent Decree? If not, any idea when you will enter the Decree. Honeywell is still trying to time the penalty payment to avoid any daily interest.

Thanks for your help on this.

I think Judge Payne will act promptly on it, especially if it goes in by joint motion to enter the consent decree and we have all our ducks in a row.

Tom:

So far, no comments. The Federal Register Notice appeared on April 8th so that sets the deadline for the 30 day comment period at May 8th. We usually give 1 – 2 days beyond that just to catch any comments that may be coming via regular mail, then we file the Motion to Enter. I'll give you a heads up when we file. I don't have any sense of how quick this judge will act, but Rob may have some experience.

Thanks, Tom.

Kate & Dennis:

Did you receive any comments from the public on the proposed Consent Decree? Any idea when the judge may sign the Decree (or motion to enter the Decree)? Honeywell is trying to have everything in place to pay the penalty immediately upon the effective date of the Decree.

Thanks for your help on this.
